

New Play Application Process

- Please submit a PDF with the following information:
- A one-paragraph synopsis of the play
- A one-paragraph statement explaining how the play fits into the theatre's mission.
- The playwright's bio
- Production history
- A one-line description of each character
- Playwright's contact information
- A 10-page scene from the script- do not send the entire play.

Applications that do not adhere to the guidelines cannot be considered.

Below is information regarding actor/director selection and the rehearsal/performance process.

- Readings will take place on Monday nights.
- Readings can be rehearsed at Windy City Playhouse for five hours on each of the two days prior to and on the day of the reading.
- Playwrights have the option of selecting a director or working with Windy City Playhouse to choose a director.
- All actors involved in the reading must be non-equity.
- Playwrights have the option of selecting some or all of their actors. Windy City Playhouse can also supply a list of actors and resumes.
- Actors and directors will not be compensated by Windy City Playhouse.

The reading series will be promoted on Windy City Playhouse's website and social media. Playwrights will provide the following information:

- Title of the play
- Playwright's name
- A one to two sentence description of the play
- The names of the director and any actors selected by the playwright

Send submissions to carl@windycityplayhouse.com. Please include "Play reading application" in the subject line of your email.